Please find below your login credentials for the M7 (continuous intraday trading system) ASIM environment:

- Your username remains the same as TSIM – please contact marketops@ops.semopx.com if you no longer have your usernames on record.
- The password however is updated to: Test0101

For API users you will need to update your certificate, please find this attached.

- Certificate password: eY)99mA6P)Vc$*7z

We would kindly ask you to log in to the system in order to make sure that your credentials are working properly.

Please note, that you are strongly encouraged to change your password at your first login to the trading system.

Best regards,

SEMOpx
